

GERMANY ACTING TO STEM UNREST, DANGER IS ACUTE

Government Moves Swiftly to Block Attempt at an Uprising

A ROUND-UP ORDERED

Monarchist and Military Plotters Being Arrested—11 of Secret Society Held

BERLIN MOURNS RATHENAU

Tribute Paid to Dead Statesman Who Won Respect of Allies in Negotiations

BERLIN, June 26.—With a state of siege prevailing today and public officials openly admitting that the German republic is in danger as a result of political unrest resulting from the assassination of Doctor Walter Rathenau, the government is moving swiftly in rounding up all monarchist and military plotters.

Hindenburg Visits Eldest Son
It was learned Field Marshall Von Hindenburg, former chief of staff in the imperial German army, arrived at Potsdam to visit Prince Elster, son of the former kaiser, although officials do not connect Hindenburg in any way with the agitation against the republic.

General Escherich, former commander of the republican security police and his staff were guests at the Katerhof hotel, but are reported to have departed for some unknown destination.

Whole City in Mourning
The whole city is in mourning while final arrangements are being made for a public funeral for the late foreign secretary.

The assassins have not yet been captured. A huge reward has been offered for their apprehension.

Efforts are being made to have the socialist call of the general strike which was ordered to begin tomorrow in protest against assassination.

"The safety of the German republic is at stake because the murderers have accomplished what they intended," said President Paul E. Loeb of the Reichstag, in delivering an eulogy. Doctor Rathenau was a true servant of the people, but he died at the hands of murderers.

Chancellor Wirth wept as he paid his tribute to the slain statesman.

Doctor Rathenau was a noble character," declared the chancellor. "He was a fighter in the cause of humanity and cancellation and he even won the respect of our enemies at Geneva."

"German workers, protect the republic; our beloved fatherland, gentlemen of the Reichstag, I warn you against going any further."

BERLIN, June 26.—A German army officer said he was First Lieut. Karl Tilsen, was arrested at Flensburg today on suspicion of complicity in the assassination of Foreign Secretary Walter Rathenau. He was attempting to cross the Danish frontier when seized.

Eleven members of an alleged secret organization were arrested with during the day in connection with the political agitation connected with the assassination.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Dr. Otto Wiedfeldt, the new German ambassador, is returning to Germany within a few weeks, it was learned by the International News Service today. Dr. Wiedfeldt has been prominently mentioned in German press and governmental circles as the most probable successor to the late Dr. Walter Rathenau, foreign minister, who was assassinated Saturday.

Dr. Wiedfeldt said he planned to return to Germany in July even before the assassination of the foreign minister. Dr. Rathenau's death, however, probably will hasten his departure.

ANNUAL HOMECOMING WEEK

Siloam Springs Birthday Celebration
Attended by 15,000 people.

The largest crowd in the history of the celebration gathered in Siloam Springs last week for the forty-second annual homecoming.

Ree Guthrey, president of the White River Trails association said yesterday upon his return. Guthrey was one of the speakers at the homecoming picnic.

Siloam Springs celebrates its birthday every year with this immense gathering of old-timers and this year there were between 10,000 and 15,000 people who attended.

Gov. T. C. McCrea, a candidate for reelection to his office and Judge Toney, who is running against him, indicated politics into their speeches while Guthrey, White River and Albert Pike officials and publisher of the Nation's Highway ran true to form and talked on good roads.

The White River trail from Tulsa to Siloam Springs is in excellent condition, with the exception of a 22-mile strip of road in Delaware county that is to be worked upon beginning July 1. Guthrey said, and there is hearing that travel over it this year than there has ever been.

DOYLE TO ADDRESS JUNIORS

Park Board President Is Principal Speaker at Luncheon.
Leslie Doyle, president of the park board, will speak to the members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at their regular weekly meeting Tuesday noon. Doyle will speak on matters pertaining to civic improvement in relation to city parks.

The report on the third annual convention of the junior chamber of commerce held at Indianapolis last week, to be made by the chamber president, Phil Kramer, will be a feature of Tuesday's meeting. The first of the attendance prizes, a three months' swimming ticket at the Y will also be awarded. This prize is offered by N. A. Thompson, membership secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

White River Trail to Be Completed with the Building of 22 Miles

The White river trail between Tulsa and Siloam Springs is to be completed and ready for travel when the work to begin soon on the 22-mile stretch of road in Delaware county is finished. Ree Guthrey, president of the association said yesterday.

Bonds in the amount of $50,000 were voted and sold by Kansas and Flint townships last week. Guthrey said. Construction on the highway will begin July 1 under the supervision of County Commissioner Neal. This will eliminate one of the imperfect links on the trail between Tulsa and Siloam Springs, Guthrey said.

NOTE THREATENS BRITISH PREMIER

Other Officials Warned They'll Die if Two Suspects Hang

LONDON, June 26.—Premier Lloyd George, Colonial Secretary Winston Churchill and Sir Hamar Greenwood, former chief secretary for Ireland, have received anonymous letters threatening them with death if James Connolly and John O'Brien, alleged assassins of Field Marshal Wilson are hanged. It was reported this afternoon. Premier Lloyd George's office refused to confirm the report.

LONDON, June 26.—A charge of willful murder against James Connolly and John O'Brien was returned by the coroner's jury today following the inquest into the assassination of Field Marshal Wilson. Connolly and O'Brien shot the field marshal to death on the doorstep of his home last Thursday.

LONDON, June 26.—Honored with the highest military honors the British empire can bestow, Field Marshal Sir Henry Hughes Wilson, former chief of the imperial general staff, was assassinated last Thursday, was buried at noon today in the field marshal's corner of St. Paul.

A firing squad from the field marshal's old Irish regiment fired a volley over the grave.

Despite rainy weather, thousands of persons lined the street between Eaton place and St. Paul, standing reverently harked as the cortege passed.

Elaborate precautions had been taken by Scotland Yard and the war office to guard against disorders and to protect the lives of officials. Many members of the cabinet attended.

Marshall Foch There.
Marshall Foch, former generalissimo of the allied armies in France, who came to London for the funeral, went to the Wilson home where he knelt beside the coffin, offering a brief prayer. Later he accompanied Lady Wilson, the widow, to the cathedral.

Among the pallbearers were field marshals. The Duke of Connaught was present, representing the king.

ASSAILANT ADMITS SLAYING HEMBREE

Lawrence Smiley Admits Being Assailant of Former Officer

MAN KILLED BY FALL

Manslaughter Will Be Charge Because of Extenuating Circumstances

CRIME WAVE DEVELOPMENTS

Lawrence Smiley, charged with killing Ernest L. Hembree, former deputy sheriff, surrendered to the county attorney.

Murder charges filed against Frank and William Ledford, charged with killing Charles Mitchell.

Assailants of Elmer Milton who is in hospital suffering from wounds still at liberty.

No complaints yet made against four negroes who drove "wild car" on Sand Springs road; injured people are still missing.

Lawrence Smiley yesterday noon walked into the county attorney's office and made the startling announcement that he wanted to give himself up for the death of Ernest L. Hembree, 50 years old, 441 1/2 North Main, a former deputy sheriff, who died in a local hospital late Sunday night after an unidentified assailant had struck him down during an altercation in front of a cafe at 11 North Main. Smiley was placed in the county jail.

Despite the fact that he was directly responsible for the death of Hembree, the county attorney said yesterday that Smiley will be charged with manslaughter. The information will be filed Tuesday.

After surrendering Smiley told the county attorney that he did not know that he had killed Hembree or even seriously injured the man until he read the paper yesterday morning.

Exasperated, He Says.
"I had gone to the cafe," Smiley said, "to pay a debt of $5 I owed a man inside. As I walked up this man Hembree, who was partially intoxicated and in an ugly mood accosted me and started swearing. He called me several names but I walked away from him and inside the cafe. He followed me there and then again followed me to the street, still abusing me. I told him to stop and started to walk away but he followed me still calling me vile names."

"Again I told him to stop, that I would get mad. He kept up his flow of filthy language and I hit him with my left fist. As he fell I turned and walked away. I knew nothing of his death until reading the paper this morning. I don't think that my blow killed him, although I hit him as hard as I could. But I am willing to take my medicine."

In explaining the manslaughter charges the county attorney said that he had conducted an investigation and that Smiley's story was corroborated by other witnesses to the killing. "It wasn't Smiley's blow that killed the man anyway," the county attorney said. "Smiley's fist broke Hembree's jaw and the blow knocked the man unconscious—it was a knockout in the talk of the prize ring. Hembree fell to the sidewalk and his head hit the curb. The fall killed him because his skull was crushed. While Smiley was the direct cause of his death, if his story is true, he could hardly be blamed for hitting the man and I don't think that he should be charged with murder. In fact, a murder charge wouldn't be fair."

Hijacking Charge Pending.
A charge of hijacking is now pending in district court against Smiley. He was tried several months ago but the jury failed to reach a verdict. The case has not come up for a new trial since. Smiley has been working hard since that time, according to County Attorney W. F. Ledford, who said that he had kept tabs on the youth.

The shooting at Red Fork Sunday afternoon in which Charles Mitchell, 24 years old, was shot by his brother-in-law, Frank and William Ledford, resulted in the filing of a four-page petition yesterday before Justice John H. Query, against the two Ledfords. The accused men covered places not guilty and were committed to jail without bail pending their preliminary trial which was set for June 27. The information against the men is as follows: Mitchell, brother of the dead man, State witnesses are Herbert Mitchell, Albert Barnes of West Tulsa; John Ledford, son of Frank Ledford; Tom Davis and J. W. Watson of Red Fork.

Frank Ledford from his cell in the county jail yesterday declared that Mitchell caused his own death. The dead man came to Ledford's house Sunday afternoon, according to the latter's story, and started a quarrel. Later when Mitchell left he stated that he would kill Ledford. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon, according to Ledford's story, Mitchell with two companions returned. Mitchell, he says, appeared to be intoxicated and was carrying a shotgun. "I warned them to get out of my house or my place," Ledford asserted, "and when they refused to stop I opened fire. Mitchell dropped. The other two men chased me to West Tulsa where I surrendered to a police officer."

Looks Like Self-Defense.
County Attorney W. F. Seaver stated that in his opinion the murder information against the two Ledfords would not be sustained at the preliminary trial. From what I can see," he said, "it looks like an act of self-defense. However, this office will prosecute the case."

Funeral services for Mitchell will be held at 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning from the Mowbray chapel with interment in Oakland cemetery. Funeral arrangements for Hembree have not been completed.

The assailant of Elmer Milton, 28 years old of Springfield, Mo., who is in the Tulsa hospital suffering from 17 knife wounds is yet at liberty. Milton was brought to the hospital late Sunday evening by an unidentified motorist who said that he had found the injured man near Millers lake on the Broken Arrow road. At that time Milton told police officers that he had been assaulted by his brother-in-law, Charles Amos and a man whom he did not know. The three of them had gone to the spot near Millers lake in a taxicab, according to Milton.

Robbed, Says Milton.
The stranger hit him over the head, Milton told the police, and when he recovered his senses he was lying on the ground, suffering from the knife wounds and with his pockets empty. He had been robbed of about $5, he claimed.

In a statement made to the county attorney yesterday Milton made many contradictory remarks. He reiterated that the three of them had gotten out of the taxicab at the spot where Milton was found because it was shady—it was after dark at that time. The county attorney regarded Milton's story as that of a drunk man or one not in his right mind. However, he said that an information charging "assault with intent to kill" would be filed Tuesday against Amos and "John Doe."

Milton said yesterday that he had not seen his brother-in-law in 12 years, when asked to accompany Amos and the strange man on the auto ride Sunday night. The injured man has resided in Tulsa about four months.

Blacks Still Held

Leroy Scott, Jesse Gibson, M. E. Embrey, and Dennis Keving, the four negroes, who with another unidentified negro and white man, are said to have crashed into several cars on the Sand Springs road near the greenhouse, late Sunday evening and run over an unidentified white man, injuring him seriously, were still in the county jail yesterday with no complaints filed against them. The county attorney said that no one had appeared at his office to file an information against the blacks and that unless a complaint was made within the next few hours he would be forced to liberate the negroes. It was reported to local officials as well as Sand Springs officials, Sunday evening, that the negroes and the white man, all of whom were said to have been drunk, had run into several cars along the Sand Springs road and finally gone into a ditch themselves. After getting out of the ditch the negroes ran down an unidentified white man while trying to escape. The blacks were arrested in Sand Springs. This morning it was reported, was thought to have been killed. He was picked up by a passing motorist who started to Tulsa. That is the last that was seen of him. Three other parties, a man, his wife and baby, who were in one of the cars into which the negro car crashed, were also reported to have been injured. Nothing has been heard of them. None of the hospitals has heard of any of the injured people.

Police officials stated last night that in their opinion none of the injured parties were hurt so badly as was at first reported and had been taken to their homes, where they were remaining silent. Chief of Detectives Patton stated yesterday that he had been called to the scene of the "fatally injured" had only been slightly hurt and was taken to his home. However, this report has not yet been corroborated.
